1. INTRODUCTION

This Policy is primarily framed based on Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”) and Regulation 4(2)(d)(iv) and Regulation 22 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as ‘Listing Regulations’), which stipulates that the listed entity shall formulate a vigil mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of Company’s Code of Conduct or ethics policy.

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Refex Industries Limited (the “Company” or “Refex”), has adopted the following Vigil Mechanism/Whistle-Blower Policy (the “Policy”), effective from December 01, 2015 and adopted revised Policy on May 06, 2022 (effective from April 01, 2022), as required under Section 177(9) of the Act and Regulation 4(2)(d)(iv) and Regulation 22 of the Listing Regulations.

The Policy shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of director(s) or employee(s) or any other person who avail the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the chairperson of the audit committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.

2. PURPOSE / OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

The Company believes in conducting its affairs in a fair and transparent manner by adopting the highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behavior, in consonance with the Company’s Principles and Code of Conduct. Any actual or potential violation of these Principles and the Code of Conduct for Employees would be a matter of serious concern for the Group.

Employees have a role and responsibility in pointing out such violations. This Policy is formulated to provide a secure environment and to encourage employees to report unethical, unlawful or improper practices, acts or activities in the Company and to prohibit top management personnel from taking any adverse personnel action against those employees who report such practices in good faith.

Whistle blower policy intends to cover serious concerns that could have grave impact on the operations and performance of the business of the Company.

3. SCOPE/APPLICABILITY:

This Policy applies to all the employees of the Company. This Policy neither release employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and/or colleagues in general.

This Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place/suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of company rules, manipulations, negligence causing danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and formally reported by whistle blowers concerning its employees.

In order to protect the identity of the Whistle Blower, the Vigilance Officer will not issue any acknowledgement to him and he is not advised neither to write their name / address on the envelope nor enter into any further correspondence with the Vigilance Officer.

Anonymous / Pseudonymous disclosure shall not be entertained by the Vigilance Officer. On receipt of the Protected Disclosure, the Vigilance Officer shall detach the covering letter bearing the identity of the Whistle-Blower and process only the Protected Disclosure.

The Vigilance Officer shall keep a register for the registration of the Protected Disclosures received from the Whistle Blowers, with each Disclosure serially numbered and the action taken/recorded in each case.

7. DISQUALIFICATIONS:

While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle-Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.

Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle-Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

Whistle-Blowers, who make any Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous or malicious, shall be liable to be prosecuted.

8. INVESTIGATION:

All Protected Disclosures under this policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated. The Vigilance Officer will carry out an investigation either himself/herself or by involving any other Officer of the Company/Committee constituted for the same /an outside agency before referring the matter to the Audit Committee of the Company.

The Audit Committee, if deems fit, may call for further information or particulars from the Subject and at its discretion, consider involving any other/additional Officer of the Company and/or Committee and/ or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation. The subject shall have a duty to co-operate with the investigator and responsibility not to interfere or obstruct with the investigation process.

The Audit Committee can summon the Whistle Blower to take oral evidence or may ask for further documentary evidence in support of his/her complaint.

The investigation by itself would not tantamount to an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process.

The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Audit Committee deems fit.

Any member of the Audit Committee or other officer having any conflict of interest with the matter shall disclose his/her concern /interest forthwith and shall not deal with the matter.

9. DECISION AND REPORTING:

If an investigation leads to a conclusion that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall after going through the report and the evidences and documents submitted by the Whistle-Blower shall take appropriate decision on the report and forward the same to the Board of Directors for suitable action. The action taken on the report shall be communicated to the Whistle Blower/ Subject.

A Whistle-Blower who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the Subject to the Vigilance Officer or the Audit Committee shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

While acting on the basis of this Policy, the employees shall act with utmost bona fide intention, any reports complaints made by the employees under this policy shall be true and fair supported by strong documentary evidences. The safeguard of the Company's interest shall be the only motive of the employees.
